Experience the Whole Valley!

One card – all the highlights

The Stubai Super Card is your admission ticket to an amazing summer holiday in the Stubai Valley. Whether you are passionate hiker, climber or gourmet – there is something for everyone! From May 14 to November 1, 2026 the Stubai Super Card will make your experience of the whole valley and breath-taking mountainscape even more intense. You receive the Stubai Super Card when staying with one of the participating accommodation partners. It is valid throughout your entire vacation – starting from day one.

Good to know

Cable cars: The Stubai Super Card grants you direct access to the cable cars via the turnstile. You do not need to queue up at the counter. Please note that each cable car may only be used once per day (one ride up, one ride down). All cable car schedules are subject to change. These services are only available during the standard opening hours of the service providers.

Public transport: You have unlimited access to public transport on the 590 line (Stubaitalbus) between Mutterberg and Innsbruck during standard operating hours. You also benefit from unlimited access to the STB line (Stubaitalbahn) between Fulpmes and Innsbruck during standard operating hours. If you arrive by train, public transport access is already included. Please download your travel voucher free of charge from stubai.at.

Experience the breath-taking Stubai mountainscape up close.

Stubai Cable Cars

Easy way to the peak

The Stubai cable cars will take you to many starting points for hiking and mountain tours – all in the height of comfort. The cosy huts & lodges and idyllic alpine meadows of the Stubai Valley invite you to relax in the beautiful mountain area.

A detailed overview of the range of hiking trips and tours on offer can be found in the Stubai Hut Guide (Hüttenführer-Folder) which is available at the Stubai Tyrol Tourist Information. Treat yourself to the culinary delights available on the idyllic alpine meadows and huts & lodges – even when the sun is not out, a cable car-ride will always be worth your while.

Countless huts and high alpine lodges invite hikers to linger and relax.

The Stubai Glacier
Simply high

The impressive panorama of the world of the Stubai Glacier opens up as soon as you ride the spacious 3S Eisgratbahn. At almost 3,000 metres, there is also plenty to experience in the summer months. Impressively embedded in the panorama of the Stubai Glacier, the TOP OF TYROL summit platform offers a unique 360-degree view of over 109 three-thousand metre peaks. The Schaufeljoch chapel, just a few minutes' walk from the mountain station, is a wonderful place to pause.

The Eisgrat restaurant with its sun terrace provides enjoyable moments, with a wide range of dishes from BBQs and hut classics to small snacks, with particular emphasis on the use of regional products.

Watch out families! The high-altitude playground with mammoth and snowgroomer invites all young visitors to play and romp around. In July and August, you can find out all about the Stubai Glacier World during the daily information session at 12:00 noon.

Elferbahnen Cable Cars

Ascent to Neustift's local mountain

The Elfer cable cars in Neustift are a gift to fans of hiking and paragliding. You will find a huge network of hiking trails with plenty of places to stop and admire the view. A particular highlight: discover the largest walk-on sundial in the Alps – right outside the summit station of the Elferbahnen cable cars. Furthermore, the Geh-Zeiten-Wege trails take visitors on a journey through time. All downhill bikers will appreciate the two trails EinsEinser and ZweiZweier.

Schlick 2000

Fantastic mountain activities for the entire family

The gondola lift takes you up to 2,136 meters to the Kreuzjoch mountain station – the ideal starting point for an eventful family day in Schlick 2000. In just 15 minutes, the barrier-free Panoramic Trail (Panoramaweg) leads to the StubaiBlick viewing platform, where an impressive panorama of the Kalkkögel and the Stubai mountains opens up.

The family-friendly, stroller-accessible Nature Trail (Naturlehrweg) is both playful and educational. Interactive stations provide interesting facts about the local flora and fauna and bring nature to life for children and adults alike.

The idyllic Lake Trail (Seenweg) between Galtbergsee and Panoramasee invites you to stroll and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere.

The Gletscherblick and Gschmitz nature sites offer impressive views of the surrounding mountains.

A thrilling adventure experience on Tyrol's first slide trail

Fun on the Scheibenweg trail

New stop on the Stubai Tree House Trail: Dwarf Bardwin's Fire Station

The turbulent Scheibenweg trail promises action: the wooden disc rolls along the channels along the path and must not deviate from its course – great fun for the whole family.

Adventurous visitors can go on a treasure hunt with the dwarf Bardin on the Stubai Tree House Trail. Creatively designed tree houses invite you to explore, play, and linger.

Things get fast-paced on the first Tyrolean slide trail (Rutschenweg) next to the Galtbergbahn station. Several slides provide exercise and excitement in the middle of the mountain landscape.

New at the Kreuzjoch panorama restaurant is a marble run, which provides additional fun in a playful way.

After so much mountain fun, nine rustic alpine pastures and huts invite you to enjoy and relax at the end of a successful day in Schlick 2000.

Public Transport

Mobility in the whole valley – and all the way to Innsbruck

The Stubai Super Card also includes the use of public transport. This allows you to reach all the main starting points in the valley comfortably, such as the breath-taking Wilde Water Trail (WildeWasserWeg), and you can leave your own car parked at your accommodation with peace of mind.

Please check the bus timetables at the bus stops. The Stubai Super Card is valid on the lines 590 (bus) and STB (Stubai Valley Tram).

Please note that the Stubai Super Card is not valid on the 590N (Nightliner)! In order to avoid overcrowded buses, we would also ask you to take the Stubai Valley Railway (line STB) rather than the bus (line ST) at peak hours between 4:00 pm and 6:00 pm.

Sightseeing in front of the Golden Roof (Goldenes Dachl)

You can take the bus or the train to Innsbruck and back to the Stubai Valley.

Bonus Partners

Experience even more in the Stubai

In addition to the many included offers, the Stubai Super Card also offers a series of attractive bonus offers. Just show your card to the many participating partners and you will save up to 30% on the regular admission.

(The actual admission for the Stubai Super Card holders results from the partners' regular admission minus 30%. This price will be rounded to the next higher 50-cent amount. Example: the regluar admission minus 30% equals € 3.43, i.e. the actual reduced admission is € 3.50)
